

I do not want to lose the ability to choose who I want for my ISP. I do not want it decided for me and have to pay whatever they decide is the value of their services - without competition bringing the price down. Please keep the small businesses alive.